The 1914 Nodaway Chautauqua = Its Story

be the Ninth Annual Chautauqua for Maryville, and the third under the direction of the Nodaway Chautauqua Association, promises to be the most successful in the history of Maryville Chaetanquas. The Assem-bly of 1913 was an unqualified suc-cess, and the board of directors feel encouraged to plan for ligger things this year.

Board of Directors.

On Thursday of Assembly week, 1913, the following board of directors was duly elected: Judge W. C. Ellison, E. C. Wolfers, jr., George Moore, W. M. Oakerson, L. E. White, J. H. Thorpe, Fred Miller and P. O.

The board of directors met during the early fall and organized by electing Judge W. C. Ellison, president; W. M. Oakerson, secretary; George Moore, treasurer and P. O. Landon chairman of the program committee All matters pertaining to the assembly of 1914 have come before the ULY, usually, is the hottest month in the year. The sun and the thermometer seem to struggle together, the mercury climbs and climbs and climbs, and then the summer seems to fall back, exhausted, into the arms of winter. Just when the struggle wavers and the season draws its breath, as it were, there is a pause, a long pause. Some people call it August. A Right in the middle of the pause this year, as for many years, comes the Nodaway Chautauqua. From the fifteenth to the twenty-third of the month, Maryville is to be hostess to persons, lots of them, and persons with personalities. Great men-and great women, toowill visit Nodaway's county seat to entertain and to instruct crowds that will gather under the cool and shadowy tent in the leafy chautauqua park. * Bodies will benefit along with minds, for the camping feature of the Chautauqua is to be retained this year. Following is the story of the 1914 Assembly, with a list of the talent and an explanation of the rules under which the course is to be given.

dence of the American people enjoyed by few men in public life. It is not due to chance or favor. It is personal to the man. It is an expression of trust which comes from the ordeal of service. It followed his long fight of fifteen years in Wiscons'n. The people knew his achievements as governor of that state written in a body of wise, practical, progressive statutes, regulating corporations in their relations to the public, and bringing govern-ment closer to the citizen. They were with him in his single handed combat with privilege in the United States Senate, and saw him carry the fight from the floor of the senate back to the states, where he challenged the re-election of men who represented not the power of the people, but corporate power and

MAYOR AND ALDERMEN IN SE-CRET SESSION LAST NIGHT.

DISCUSS COMPROMISE

Its Details Have Not Been Made Public—No Definite Action Until Next Regular Meeting.

Last night the members of the board of aldermen met with Mayor U. S. Wright in an informal meeting to discuss a compromise of the differences between the board and the mayor. This morning neither the mayor nor any of the councilmen would say just what the nature of the compromise was, for as last night's meeting was informal and no action could be taken.

The fact, even, that there was to be a meeting, was known to but an ew yesterday, for it was not called until that day, and only the eight aldermen and the mayor were allowed to be present.

However, this much information was given out concerning the meeting:
The board told Mr. Wright it was ready to hear his plan for a compromise, but before taking final action on the matter would meet again to consider it. Mr. Wright then presented his plan, which is now under the board's advisement. Nothing definite can be decided about the matter until the next regular meeting, August 7.

Aside from the statement of Mayor Wright in the last meeting of the council that he was willing, for the best interests of the city, to compromise with the board concerning appointments, nothing has ever been said about the terms upon which the mayor and the board hope to agree. At the regular monthly meeting, July 3, the board passed several ordinances taking away from the mayor the power to appoint regular and special policemen and the city clerk. Those ordinances are now awaiting the mayor's action one way or the other. In as much as the ordinances were passed unanimously, it is possible that they will be passed over the mayor's vete should a compromise be uneffected and he veto them.

It is impossible to predict who may be appointed, either as night policeman or city clerk, for there are several possibilities in each case, and the result will depend entirely upon the outcome of the proposed compromise and the willingness of the men to accept the appointments.

Mrs. Shovelin Willed It to Father Nef-Mann For Masses For Herself and Her Father.

Mrs. Berdelia Shovelin, who died a few weeks ago, after having lived alone in Maryville for thirty years, willed her property to Father Neimann, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church. The will was just filed here today, having been sent to California for witnesses' signatures. Mrs. Shovelin, in signing the will, used same

After requesting that all of her debts be paid, the will goes on to read:

"I hereby give and bequeath to Rev. Henry F. Neimann all the property of which I may die seized after the payment of the expenses above stated. And I hereby request that he use the same for the purpose of masses for the repose of my soul and the soul of my deceased father, Bernard Finnegan, and the deceased members of my father's family."

The will was made September 12, 1908, and T. A. Cummins was named executor.

SCHUMANN PIANOS

There is nothing in the name of a Piano that makes one instrument better than another There is everything however in the honesty of purpose, equipment and ability of the manufacturer that turns out the instrument. We do not claim that the Schumann is the only good Piano made. We do claim however that if you buy a Piano as good as the Schumann you will pay more money for it than The Landon Music Co, is asking for the Schumann.

Go into any piano you please and do the same with any style Schumann in our stock and note the superior construction and material found in these Pianos. If you contemplate buying a Piano you can not afford to purchase without examining the SCHUMANN.

REMEMBER that there is an Unlimited Warrantee on every Schumann Piano, and that the personal Guarantee of Mr. Landon is back of every Piano he sells. The Schumann Piano Co., which manufactures these Pianos is a corporation, incorporated in the State of Illinois and your Banker can inform you as to their financial standing.

They make one Piano only "THE SCHUMANN" and have absolutely no connection with any other Piano factory. The truth of this statement may be ascertained by writing to the Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois. Any dealer who tries to reflect on the standing or honesty of the Schumann Piano Co., does so because he can not meet SCHUMANN QUALITY.

LITTLE HOUSE IN LITTLE TOWN

By San Diego Newspaper Man.

The following poem is written by Harry Martin, a former Maryville boy, dition Monday afternoon was good. now a newspaper editor at San Diego, Cal. The little house referred to is one at the corner of Fillmore and son of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin and morning for an extended visit with during his childhood, the family made its home in this cottage, leaving here about twenty five years ago. George Martin, during his residence in Maryville was the editor of the Nodaway Knox Auto Livery ville was the editor of the Nodaway Democrat. The poem was written some time ago, and was sent to Mrs. Ed McMillen, of West Third street, an old friend of the family.

A Little House in Little Town. (By Harry Martin.)

Hanamo phone 313; residence 490. Oh, little house, in Little Town, I hear they have not torn you down; Across the meadows, on the hill Where bloom the roses and daffodil;

Where as a child I ceased my play To leave on one far Summer's day A little house in Little Town. Oh, little house in Little Town A gentle mother wore her crown

Within thy narrow walls to raise Her children three-all grown to And laud in half a thousand ways

The one who watched with tenderest care The chicks who deemed a shelter

Their little house in Little Town Oh, Little house in Little Town; Home of my birth; as years fly

'round How often to myself I say "I'll venture back some sunny day" -But one can't always have his way. The spot is leagues and leagues from here, Though memory brings so strangely near A little house in Little Town.

Oh, little house in Little Town, I never knew the world could frown; I never knew that hearts could break Until your roof I did forsake-I know it now, aye, no mistake!

Still, there's a green, immortal lea Where Some One may yet build A little house in Little Town.

CLUB SETS DATES

HOME COMING WILL LAST FROM OCTOBER 7 TO 10.

TO ERECT STREET SIGNS

Council Wants New Street Sweeper-Business Men Favor Plan-To Draw Plumbing Ordinance.

The plans proposed by the entertainment committee and approved by the Commercial club at its weekly luncheon yesterday, set the date of the home-coming from October 7 to 10. As the plans are only tentative, however, and may be changed to some extent, the dates may differ by reason of a day or two being added to the festival. But at any rate, the same week in October will be kept.

In the proposed program the committee, Dr. Jesse Miller, R. B. Montgomery and Lewis DeHart, planned to make each day a special day. One of them, probably the first, is to be given to the Woodmen of the World for their log rolling contests and initiation, another is to be home-coming day, at which time speeches will be made by various prominent men, former citizens of Maryville. Then a children's day and a horse show day have been proposed. This last, however, may be changed, because of the county fair and races to be held the first week in September.

The Commercial club yesterday instructed the entertainment committee to go ahead along the lines of the proposed program and arrange the details. The committee will meet at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning to decide definitely about the days and begin the detailed work.

Several affairs of civic importance were taken up and discussed at yesterday's luncheon in conjunction with the street committee of the city council. These were plans for a standard plumbing law, the marking of the streets with signs and the purchase of an improved modern street sweeper.

Some time ago the city welfare committee of the Commercial club suggested to the city council that it should pass an ordinance regulating the number in which plumbing might be installed in the city. At present the work can be done in any way, without traps if a person does not want them, thus endangering the health of the persons living near such conditions. The council thought the idea a good one. The members of the street committee and some of the Miss Elsie V. The Lenox Torrid Zone Steel Furnace

Has been on the market one-fourth a century and we have installed them for nineteen years. This is a long time to stick to one make of furnace, and, of course, there is a reason for so doing. Experience has proven Torrid Zone Furnace to be far superior in durability, economy of fuel, and efficiency in delivering warm air to the rooms desired.

It consumes less fuel, produces more heat, has the greatest amount of radiation and delivers more heat to the hot air circulating chamber than others in the same length of time. Take note of the Torrid Zone

Construction.

The Furnace Shell one piece of steel, the top, bottom and feed door frame is of steel and riveted, gas tight, wrought steel rivets driven home with pneumatic riveters.

The Radiator is hung to the smoke outlet on a WEDGED JOINT, the more the heat expands it the tighter the joint becomes. The DIVIDING FLUE extends to within eight inches of the bottom causing the heat to travel three times the length of the radiator before passing into the smoke flue.

These are a few of the many reasons of the Torrid Zone's success as a warm air heating plant. Bring in your plans and let us furnish estimates on heating the home.

Corn off the cob-Select sweet corn ears of uniform size and proper ripeness. If too ripe the corn will color while processing. (Processing is the canning term for sterilization or cooking.) If not ripe enough much of the food value is lost in cutting the corn from the cob. Use either glass jars or tin cans. For market purposes and reater safety in transportation, use tin cans.

Remove husk, siik, shank, tips, and injured or defective places. Blanch corn in boiling water or steam chest for from five to ten minutes. The time depends upon the stage of ripeness, size of ears, and degree of freshness. Remove the ears and plunge quickly in cold water.

Cut the corn from the cob with a sharp, thin bladed knife. Pack well in glass jar or tin can; add hot water and a level teaspoon of salt to the quart or No. 3 can. Place rubber and glass jar top in place, not tight. If using tin, solder cap in place and fill vent hole, or seal completely. Process the corn from 180 to 240 minutes in the home-made or hot water commercial bath outfits; for 11/2 hours in the water-seal outfits; for 60 minutes when using from 5 to 10 pounds of steam pressure, with the steam pressure canning devices, and 40 minutes when using the aluminum steam pressure cooker outfit. MAUD BALLINGTON BOOTH.

Mrs. Booth is a mite of a woman. "Little Mother" is her name among the convicts and ex-convicts from Maine to California and she calls them all "My Boys." She is so brim full of savior faire of fire and energy, that you can think of her only as one who could easily move mountains-which she frequently does. A mass of dark brown hair is constantly making dashes for freedom, encreaching on the smooth, broad forehead, and even on the straight, dark eyebrows which emphasize the effect of the brilliantly dark brown eyes. It is a face that is supremely earnest-lovingly earnest-its sugges-tive tendency strengthened by a lifetime of labor among the outcasts and outlaws.

Her face, her manner, her sentiments are all the inspiration of earnestness, but there is no surfeit, for

able for the United States. For a stirring, entertaining, and highly instructive Lyceum or Chautauqua program, the debate on "So cialism" between Hon, J. Adam Bede, ex-Congressman from Minneat Chautauqua, N. Y.

The prisoners who were paroled from Joliet and Menard prisons t Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth, within one year have earned over $100, 000 for themselves and families These prisoners were all friendless, with no one to take them out had not Mrs. Booth interceded for them The New York Chautauqua Daily says of Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth and her work: The work of the Volunteer Prison League was presented to Chautauqua on Saturday afternoon in the Amphi-theater by the founder of the league, Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth. Mrs. Booth laid the foundation for the league in Sing Sing Prison in 1905, and since that time the memhership in the league has grown to many thousands, and she is affectionately called "The Little Mother' by thousands of men in and out of prison throughout all the country.

The conviction in the message that she had to bring moved Mrs. Booth to a stirring speech which has wor her hundreds of new friends.

ULY, usually, is the hottest month in the year. The sun and the thermometer seem to struggle together, the mercury climbs and climbs and climbs, and then the summer seems to fall back, exhausted, into the arms of winter. Just when the struggle wavers and the season draws its breath, as it were, there is a pause, a long pause. Some people call it August. Right in the middle of the pause this year, as for many years, comes the Nodaway Chautauqua. From the fifteenth to the twenty-third of the month, Maryville is to be hostess to persons, lots of them, and persons with personalities. Great men—and great women, too will visit Nodaway's county seat to entertain and to instruct crowds that will gather under the cool and shadowy tent in the leafy chautauqua park. * Bodies will benefit along with minds, for the camping feature of the Chautauqua is to be retained this year. Following is the story of the 1914 Assembly, with a list of the talent and an explanation of the rules under which the course is to be given.

MEET INFORMALLY

MAYOR AND ALDERMEN IN SE-CRET SESSION LAST NIGHT.

DISCUSS COMPROMISE

Its Details Have Not Been Made Public-No Definite Action Until Next Regular Meeting.

Last night the members of the board of aldermen met with Mayor U. S. Wright in an informal meeting to discuss a compromise of the differences between the board and the mayor. This morning neither the mayor nor any of the councilmen would say just what the nature of the compromise was, for as last night's meeting was informal and no action could be taken.

The fact, even, that there was to be a meeting, was known to but antew yesterday, for it was not called until that day, and only the eight aldermen and the mayor were allowed to be

However, this much information was given out concerning the meeting: The board told Mr. Wright it was ready to hear his plan for a compremise, but before taking final action on the matter would meet again to consider it. Mr. Wright then presented his plan, which is now under the board's advisement. Nothing definite can be decided about the matter until the next regular meeting, August 7.

Aside from the statement of Mayor Wright in the last meeting of the council that he was willing, for the best interests of the city, to compromise with the board concerning appointments, nothing has ever been said about the terms upon which the mayor and the board hope to agree. At the regular monthly meeting, July 3, the board passed several ordinances taking away from the mayor the power to appoint regular and special policemen and the city clerk. Those ordinances are now awaiting the mayor's action one way or the other. In as much as the ordinances were passed unanimously, it is possible that they will be passed over the mayor's veto should a compromise be uneffected

It is impossible to predict who many be appointed, either as night policeman or city clerk, for there are several possibilities in each case, and the result will depend entirely upon the outcome of the proposed compromise and the willingness of the men to accept the appointments.

SCHUMANN PIANOS

There is nothing in the name of a Piano that makes one instrument better than another There is everything however in the bonesty of purpose, equipment and ability of the manufacturer that turns out the instrument. We do not claim that the Schumann is the only good Piano made. We do claim however that if you buy a Piano as good as the Schumann you will pay more money for it than The Landon Music Co, is asking for the Schumann. Go into any piano you please and do the same with any style Schumann in our stock and note the superior construction and material found in these Pianos. If you contemplate buying a Piano you can not afford to purchase without examining the SCHUMANN.

REMEMBER that there is an Unlimited Warrantee on every Schumann Piano, and that the personal Guarantee of Mr. Landon is back of every Piano he sells. The Schumann Piano Co., which manufactures these Pianos is a corporation, incorporated in the State of Illinois and your Banker can inform you as to their financial standing.

They make one Piano only "THE SCHUMANN" and have absolutely no connection with any other Piano factory. The truth of this statement may be ascertained by writing to the Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois. Any dealer who tries to reflect on the standing or honesty of the Schumann Piano Co., does so because he can not meet SCHUMANN QUALITY.

CLUB SETS DATES

HOME COMING WILL LAST FROM OCTOBER 7 TO 10.

TO ERECT STREET SIGNS

Council Wants New Street Sweeper-Business Men Favor Plan-To Draw Plumbing Ordinance.

The plans proposed by the entertainment committee and approved by the Commercial club at its weekly luncheon yesterday, set the date of the home-coming from October 7 to 10. As the plans are only tentative, however and may be changed to some extent, the dates may differ by reason of a day or two being added to the festival. But at any rate, the same week in October will be kept.

In the proposed program the committee, Dr. Jesse Miller, R. B. Montgomery and Lewis DeHart, planned to make each day a special day. One of them, probably the first, is to be given to the Woodmen of the World for their log rolling contests and initiation, another is to be home-coming day, at which time speeches will be made by various prominent men, former citizens of Maryville. Then a children's day and a horse show day have been proposed. This last, however, may be changed, because of the county fair and races to be held the first week in September.

The Commercial club yesterday instructed the entertainment committee to go ahead along the lines of the proposed program and arrange the details. The committee will meet at 7 'clock tomorrow morning to decide definitely about the days and begin the detailed work.

Several affairs of civic importance were taken up and discussed at yesterday's luncheon in conjunction with the street committee of the city council. These were plans for a standard plumbing law, the marking of the streets with signs and the purchase of an improved modern street sweeper.

Some time ago the city welfare committee of the Commercial club suggested to the city council that it should pass an ordinance regulating the number in which plumbing might be installed in the city. At present the work can be done in any way, without traps if a person does not want them, thus endangering the health of the persons living near such conditions. The council thought the idea a good one. The members of the street committee and some of the Miss Elsie V. Smith underwent an Commercial club members have been

Lasy Drudge-"I saw a big wash out drying as I came in and thought you'd finished early. Fels-Naptha Soap's the thing to use."

If you do it the old way, with hot water and hard rubbing, the dainty little dresses and soft flannels are soon going to be ruined.

Use Fels-Naptha Soap—cool or lukewarm water, and do not boil. Put your soiled things to soak for a while; Fels-Naptha Soap will go to work on the dirt, and when you are ready to give the clothes a rub or two with your hands. the dirt will just fall right out. The Lenox Torrid Zone Steel Furnace

Has been on the market one-fourth a century and we have installed them for nineteen years. This is a long time to stick to one make of furnace, and, of course, there is a reason for so doing. Experience has proven Torrid Zone Furnace to be far superior in durability, economy of fuel, and efficiency in delivering warm air to the rooms desired.

It consumes less fuel, produces more heat, has the greatest amount of radiation and delivers more heat to the hot air circulating chamber than others in the same length of time. Take note of the Torrid Zone

Construction.

The Furnace Shell one piece of steel, the top, bottom and feed door frame is of steel and riveted, gas tight, wrought steel rivets driven home with pneumatic riveters.

The Radiator is hung to the smoke outlet on a WEDGED JOINT, the more the heat expands it the tighter the joint becomes. The DIVIDING FLUE extends to within eight inches of the bottom causing the heat to travel three times the length of the radiator before passing into the smoke flue.

These are a few of the many reasons of the Torrid Zone's success as a warm air heating plant. Bring in your plans and let us furnish estimates on heating the home.
